

Women on the Land

WOMEN ON THE LAND ARE INVITED TO ATTEND proAGtive

Leading Generational Change Interactive Workshops

Women on the Land come and enjoy a day of learning and opportunity to interact with other like minded women with proAGtive - Australia's leading succession planning organisation for rural Australia. We have received full funding to run four 1 day interactive seminars for Women of the Land and we would love you to join us for the day.

The workshop will cover the following topics:

- Succession strategies and structures for effective transition
- Understanding the dynamics of succession and transition of management, leadership and ownership.
- Understanding the important role women play in the family farm business.
- Empowering women of the land to lead change and manage the change process to bring about positive outcomes for themselves, their families and their communities through succession planning.
- Working in a multi – generation business – attributes of each and the interaction and the relevant challenges for the next generation including climate change issues
- How to ensure communication and healthy conflict successfully underpin your family business.
- Open discussion
